SAFEGUARDING

Dear Parishioners,

My name is Marian, I am the Parish Safeguarding Support Officer. I have had the pleasure of meeting some of you during our training sessions. There are still a few parishioners who I have not yet had the pleasure of meeting and we still have a lot more volunteers who need to complete Safeguarding Induction Training. If you are a volunteer here in a Parish Family and you have not completed the course before 31st May 2019, unfortunately you will no longer be allowed to volunteer in our Parish.

Below are more training dates for Safeguarding Induction Training. If these dates do not suit your schedule the Safeguarding and Ministerial Integrity Office is offering online training. To register for online training please go to <https://goo.gl/forms/wSkRi3ZO6PzkRfbo1>. To register for one of the training sessions in our Parish, please put your full name, phone number and the date you wish to attend. Forms can be found at the back of the Church.

All volunteers need to read and sign a Code of Conduct. Code of Conduct forms can be found at the back of the Church, along with a pen, please read, sign and return your form as soon as possible to either Fr Martin Monaghan after mass, the Parish Office during office hours, or if you like you can place it in the mail box at St Patrick's, 2 Wellington Street Bondi. We thank you for your understanding and cooperation with this very important matter.

Note, in order to create a culture that recognises the value of children and vulnerable adults and their protection, we strongly encourage all parishioners to be willing to sign our Code of Conduct. If you would like to sign a Code of Conduct copies are available at the back of the Church.

Also we have now displayed our Code of Conduct at the back of the Church.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you and God bless,

Marian Abi Khattar - Facilities and Accounts Manager & PSSO

We acknowledge the traditional owners and custodians of the land on which we stand. We walk on a land once occupied by the Gadigal People of the Eora Nation, who lived in this area for over 30,000 years. May we continue to love and respect the land as they have.

PARISH MINISTRIES

The word "ministry" comes from the Latin word ministro, which means "to serve". Ministries are the means by which members of the Church can use their talents to serve their communities. The Eucharist is the expression of the supreme mystery of our Catholic faith. Accordingly it is called the source, summit and centre of Catholic life. In other words, all Catholic activity should be seen to flow from the Eucharist and to find its ultimate meaning in the Eucharist. To perform a liturgical ministry within the Eucharistic celebration is a call to participate in a special way in this marvelous mystery: the dying of Jesus, his rising and coming again. Those to whom the Church entrusts this sacred ministry are called to a most "important office of immense love". (Pope Paul VI, Immensae Caritatis, 25 January 1973)

Training and Formation for Ministry

"Those who serve at the altar exercise a genuine liturgical function. They ought to discharge their office therefore, with the sincere devotion and decorum demanded by so exalted a ministry and rightly expected of them by God's people. Consequently, they must all be deeply imbued with the spirit of the liturgy, in the measure proper to each one, and they must be trained to perform their functions in a correct and orderly manner." (Vatican II, Sacrosanctum Concilium, 29) "Lay people who are pledged to the special service of the Church, whether permanently or for a time, have a duty to acquire the appropriate formation which their role demands, so they may conscientiously, earnestly and diligently fulfill their role." (Canon 231, 1)

We call all those who serve in a liturgical ministry to come to spend some time reviewing how you can improve your specific ministry. This event is for ministers of communion, lectors, acolytes, music ministry and adult altar servers. We will discuss important procedures to follow so it is very important that EVERY parishioner who serves at weekend Mass is present for this event.

The sessions will be held on Saturday, 2nd March at St. Anne's Church. The times are as follows:

Acolytes/Extra-Ordinary Ministers of the Eucharist: 10 to 10:45am

Readers: 11 to 11:45am

Musicians: 1 to 1:45pm
